Created in 2014, it is the fourth école normale to be created since the 18th century joining ENS Paris, ENS Lyon and ENS Paris-Saclay in pursuing a long standing tradition of prestige and excellence in education and research. ENS Rennes one of the top ranked and highly competitive Grandes Ecoles in France.

A Graduate Research School in Rennes « Education for research, through research ».

A highly selective admission process (recruiting 1 out of every 1000 high school graduates per year).

5 academic departments - 7 research laboratories - 2000 academic staff and researchers.

450 post-graduate Master’s Degree students, 11 Master’s Degree awards.

80% of graduates pursue to PhD.

95% success rate in the agreggation examination.

École normale supérieure de Rennes
Campus de Ker Lann - Avenue Robert Schuman - 35170 BRUZ - France

www.ens-rennes.fr
ENS Rennes maintains privileged partnerships with institutions all over the world.

USA: ENS Rennes-Fulbright Award

China: East China Normal University, Shanghai.

India: Indian Institute of Science Education and Research network (IISER).

Europe

Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne, Switzerland.
Aarhus University, Denmark
Denmark Technical University, Denmark.
SNS Pise, Italy.
Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic.
University of Limerick, Ireland.

University College Cork, Ireland.

Since 2014

500 students on study abroad
35 different countries
100 students on incoming mobility
60 international PhD
10 joint thesis awards

Visiting scholar programmes
Specific programmes: Erasmus+, Fulbright, Prosfer, China Scholarship Council...

Since 2015:
- guest professors: Prof. Paul Leahy and Prof. Liam Marnane
- guest researcher: Dr. Sara Armstrong
- student mobility (research internships both ways and 1 study mobility ENS Rennes > UCC
- research collaboration in renewable energies with the institution MAREI.